The Town of Dewitt Police Department is a progressive police agency with a $4.9 million budget that serves the eastern suburbs in the Syracuse, New York area. Dewitt Police Department has 44 full time sworn officers, and is the busiest police agency in Onondaga County outside the City of Syracuse. Our agency has an excellent reputation in the community and prides itself on professionalism and service. We have been accredited through New York State since 1998 and attained international accreditation through CALEA in 2016. Our officers are provided with outstanding training, equipment, and benefits.

Dewitt Police Department is seeking transfer candidates who are full time sworn officers. Part time officers or candidates who have already attended the basic academy must be on the Onondaga County civil service list to be eligible for hire. This agency is seeking enthusiastic, motivated police officers willing to work in a progressive suburban police agency. The Town of DeWitt Police Department is an equal opportunity employer who is actively seeking minority candidates.
